HERE IS CURE FOR INSOMNIA

Wrap a Wet Bandage Around the Leg to Draw Blood From the Head, Says a Physician.

A curious cure for sleeplessness has recently been reported. A piece of calico, about 18 inches wide and 23 1/4 yards long is rolled up like a bandage, and a third of it wrung out of cold water. The leg is then bandaged with this, the wet parts being carefully covered by several layers of the dry part, as well as by a layer of gutta serena tissue, and a stocking drawn on over the whole.

This causes dilation of the vessels of the leg, thus diminishing the blood in the head and producing sleep. It has been found by Winternitz that the temperature in the ear passage begins to fall a quarter of an hour after the application of the bandage, the decrease amounting to 0.4 degrees C., and the normal not being again reached for from 1 1/2 to two hours afterwards.

The writer has employed this means of producing sleep for a couple of years and finds it especially useful in cases where there is congestion of the brain. Sometimes he has found it necessary to reapply the bandage every three or four hours, as it dried.—Family Doctor.

AT SCHOOL

"Is there any reason, Willie, why you cannot pronounce 'core' properly? Suppose I divide this apple among you. If you had the part that holds the seeds what would you call it?"

"Aw! I'd call it a shame."

REAL REASON.

"I wonder why that rich young widow seemed to really mourn her elderly husband?"

"She didn't mourn him. She was mourning because she doesn't look well in black."

LESSON FROM THE PAST.

Alexander the Great had conquered Persia. "I'm going to use this country," he said, "for a doormat!"

Here we perceive the origin of the Persian rug.

She—You've got the right kind of breath to use them with.

WHAT FEBRUARY?

Duer—Say, old chap, let me have a fiver, will you? I'll let you have it back before the end February.

Dunn—February of what year?

INHERITED.

Pa—Son, you talk too much.

Son—Well, pa, am I to blame for your marrying into a talkative family?

HIS PRACTICE.

"Did you see where a dentist is going west to get a shore in a $7,000,000 gold mine?"

"That shows the advantage of keeping on practicing at a pull."

THE USUAL WAY.

"Are you still keeping your good resolutions?"

"Yes; I'm keeping them quiet."

VERIFY IT

The Proof Is In Lexington, Al—most at Your Door.

The public statement of a Lexington citizen is in itself strong proof for Lexington people, but confirmation strengthens the evidence.

Here is a Lexington citizen who testified years ago that Doan's Kidney Pills relieved weak kidneys and now states the result was permanent. Can any sufferer from kidney ills ask better proof? You can investigate. The case is right at home.

C. S. Mitchell, farmer, Lexington, Mo., says: "My kidneys troubled me and one of our best physicians didn't help me. It was hard for me to control the kidney secretions. Finally I got Doan's Kidney Pills from Crenshaw & Young's Drug Store and since I used them my kidneys have been strengthened and I do not have pains. The testimonials I have given for Doan's Kidney Pills before hold good. The benefit I got has been permanent."
